

THE P. B. C. YEAR BOOK

JAMES LINDENFELSER

ERMI ROOS was "railroad engineer" in the P. B. C. Dramatic Co. play. "Trouble in the Cellar." He has been supervisor in the P. B. C. model railroad two nights a week during the past season. He attends a Lutheran Church out of town. He has reached the rank of Sharpshooter Bar 3 in the Presbyterian Boys' Jr. Rifle Club. He has traveled extensively in Europe having seen Estonia, Poland, Germany, France, Denmark, Sweden, and England. He speaks Estonian as well as English. He builds radio sets and other electronic gadgets. He is interested in "Hi-Fi" and stereophonic sound. He plays baseball. He will use his $100 Gold Cross money toward his college education. He operates the club motion picture projector on Saturday nights.

ERMI ROOS

BRUCE STRANNEMAR

BRUCE STRANNEMAR operates the club motion picture projector and spotlight machine. He helped to construct a new trestle in the model railroad. He is President of the P. B. C. Model Railroad, and leader of the P. B. C. Camera Club. He has reached the rank of Sharpshooter Bar 3 in the Presbyterian Boys' Jr. Rifle Club. He has had experience in the P. B. C. Dramatic Co. He has served as recording secretary of the club. He used part of his Gold Cross money for automobile insurance and tuition at summer school. He helped to conduct the Haunted House in the last P. B. C. Carnival. He has visited relatives in Sweden and plans to go there again. He is a