one of the most powerful influences in my life. I could not even begin to tell—in a paragraph of this size—of the many friends and experiences I would never have enjoyed if it were not for the P. B. C. The impart this club has made on me will be ever-present throughout my life. I will again state the pledge that I made last year; and urge all club members, past and present, to join me. No matter where I go or what I do during the rest of my life, I will strive to make donation every year to the Presbyterian Boys' Club.
